UNION CEMETERY

Located Section 30 TWP 30 Range 10, 10 miles West and South of Houston, Mo., Texas County, on Highway Z. Inscriptions were read by Rina and Mansel Coats and Audrey Beeler ending October 1, 1976. Many graves do not have headstones, but whenever possible the information was supplied by Mansel; he also supplied the maiden name of the women in many cases. Union Baptist Church was organized a little before 1850. In 1850 James Coats (great-grandfather of Mansel Coats) deeded two acres for a subscription school and a meeting house. Later a need arose for a burial ground and this acreage was used. By 1908 the original plot was used entirely for a cemetery. Some of the early graves were dug by women during the Civil War.
